Analize – Journal of Gender and Feminist Studies is an online, open access, peer-reviewed international journal that aims to bring into the public arena new ideas and findings in the field of gender and feminist studies and to contribute to the gendering of the social, economic, cultural, and political discourses and practices about today's local, national, regional, and international realities.

Edited by The Romanian Society for Feminist Analyses AnA*, the journal intends to open conversations among eastern and non-eastern feminist researchers on the situated nature of their feminism(s) and to encourage creative and critical feminist debates across multiple axes of signification such as gender, sexual orientation, age, disability, ethnicity, religion, etc.*

The journal publishes studies, position papers, case studies, viewpoints, book reviews from practitioners of all grades and professions, academics, and other specialists on the broad spectrum of gender and feminist studies.

AnaLize publishes with an open access policy. This means that all content is freely available without charge to the user or his/her institution. Users are allowed to read, download, copy, distribute, print, search, or link to the full texts of the articles, or use them for any other lawful purpose, without asking prior permission from the publisher or the author. This is in accordance with the BOAI definition of open access. The articles are published under a Creative Commons license.
